

Rotary Of Brown County News Letter

Date: January 2009

Issue 7

January 2010

February's Birthdays

4th

Yvonne Oliger

On the 14th January our guest speaker was Barbara Otto Who represented the USO at Camp Atterbury. The USO Volunteers serve over 119000 troops in all military services passing through the camp. This service also includes the 2000 permanent personnel needed to help in deployment, process returns & help maintain the Base.

February's

Greeter: Jenny Johnson & Jaydene Laros

Prayer: Michael Chamblee

On 28th January John Seifert DNR representing the Forestry Department, spoke about the long range programs & strategic forest management plans & systems that extends from 10 to 40 years that will maintain healthy forests for the future.

February's Programs

4th

Angelica Nevins, Student Leadership

11th

Deborah Harman, Monitoring Student Progress In Brown Co.

18th

Angela Wood, Centerstone

25th Avenues of service

On the 21st January Marcia De Bock, director of Brown Co Coalition spoke to us about the importance of Literacy in our community & the economic effect illiteracy has on the country as a whole

Nashville Kindergardners waiting for their I Like Me Books, which Rotary of Brown Co. gives to each child in kindergarden in the County. As well as distributing the books, Rotarians also read to each child from their special book.

Club Attendance for January = 83.6%

